

Master Bank Advisors

EXECUTIVE EXPERTS AND CONSULTING

It's what you know ...

Your partner in providing unparalleled interim banking expertise.

We serve our clients as trusted advisors to provide solutions through executive contracting with a sole purpose of helping organizational leadership gain access to highly experienced banking executives at all levels.

Park Avenue Group is an Orlando based executive recruiting firm specializing in Banking, Wealth, Financial Services, and the Medical Device industry. With over 40 years' industry experience, Park Avenue Group has an impeccable record of recruiting the best and brightest talent to help clients increase organizational effectiveness and goal attainment.

With the surging retirement of baby boomers, the banking and financial services industry is witnessing an unprecedented crisis of a talent deficit at the highest levels. To deal with today's dearth of highly qualified leaders and executives, Park Avenue Group has launched Master Bank Advisors (MBA), which provides experienced professionals on a contract or consultancy basis to their clients.

While the retirement of boomers en masse is already proving to be a detriment to the financial industry, banks must also contend with multiple challenges tied to regulations, disruptive models and technologies, new competitors, and a changing customer base, all while pursuing new strategies for sustainable growth.

With a wealth of highly qualified contacts developed over 20 years in the business, the Park Avenue Group has identified a trend that is beginning to change the way banks hire and may ease the candidate shortage. Master Bank Advisors have the unique skill sets required to provide consultancy, temp or interim service at the most critical levels of leadership, including SVP, EVP and C-Suite.

These professionals do not come solely from the ranks of those approaching retirement. There are numerous executive professionals who, depending on their preferences or life circumstances, are seeking a new way to lend their expertise. These are banking leaders with indispensable knowledge and unparalleled experience. These are the individuals who we select to be Master Bank Advisors.

The Benefits

Speed: Don't let unexpected resignations, hiring freezes, and long, complex hiring processes bring your organization to a crawl with over-worked staff and impossible to reach objectives. Turn to contract or contract-to-hire solutions to quickly acquire the skills and experience you need!

Talent: Whatever your immediate need is, we have the ability and capacity to help. Our team has access to highly skilled professionals from a broad range of industries across the world.

Results: Don't let skill gaps, inexperience, or unexpected circumstances negatively impact your results. Bring on experienced advisors who will help keep your critical operations running and your results on track.

Flexibility: Advisors are available for assignment lengths ranging from a few days to multiple years. Just tell us the assignment start date and the skill sets and experience you're looking for your perfect candidate to possess. We will handle the rest!

Trust: We have experience in the Banking industry in which we recruit and undergo an extensive training program. It is our job to find and present you with the best advisors the market has to offer. Supported by the world's largest search and recruitment organization, our team is prepared to deliver the staffing solutions you need for as long as you need them.

We would love the opportunity to further discuss our advisor contracting program and create a customized solution to meet your needs. Our advisors may just be the short term fix you need for your long-term solutions.
